National Storytelling Week

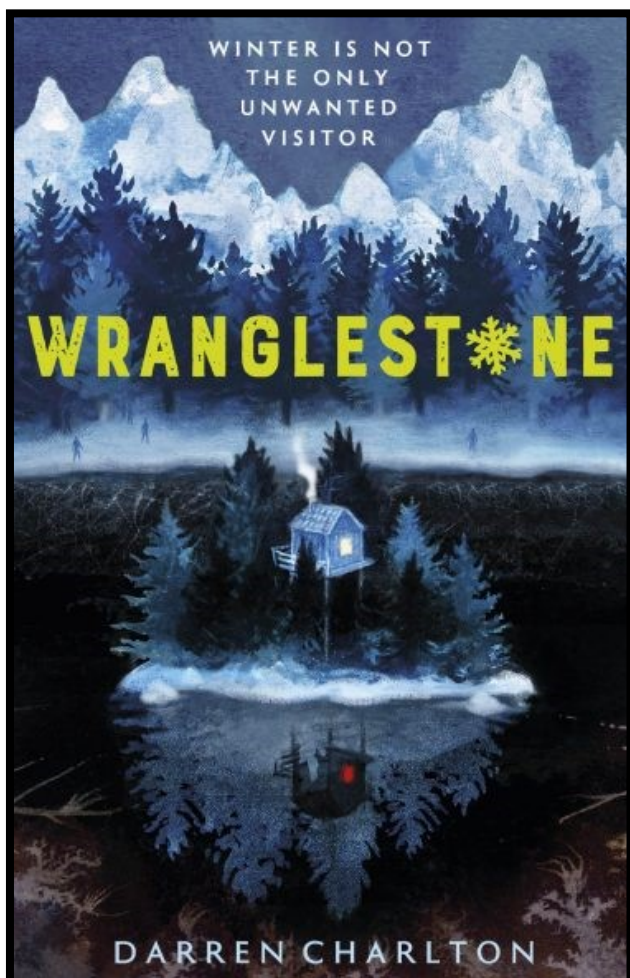

National Storytelling Week

Primary children had great fun celebrating National Storytelling Week. Children from 5LH visited the library with Ms Mir's class and enjoyed sharing stories with them.

Arise Mentoring Programme

We have been involved in providing a mentoring program for our EAL students to give them the start they need in life to progress and excel. #arisementoring

Appleton Readers book review

Wranglestone by Darren Charlton

Wranglestone is set after a zombie apocalypse has turned America into a wilderness and people are living in military refuges in national parks. Peter puts the camp in danger by allowing a stranger to enter so is forced to leave the community and help Cooper, a boy he has always admired from afar, herd the dead from the shore.

'A brilliant book with a modern twist'

Madison Wilson Year 9

'Great page turner keeping you on the edge of your seat' Gabriel Richardson Year 7

Copies are available to borrow from the library.
