

Specialist Art Project Teacher
Salary: MPS/UPS
Temporary until 31st August 2022

Appleton Academy is looking to recruit a Specialist Art Project Teacher to inspire and transform the creative art learning experiences for our primary aged children. The Arts Specialist Project Teacher will be responsible for planning, resourcing and teaching curriculum-based art projects which provide an opportunity for our primary children to become artists.

Appleton Academy is part of the Exceed Academies Trust, which currently consists of six primary schools, one all-through school and a multi-site alternative provision Pupil Referral Unit. We also work closely alongside and in collaboration with a Local Authority maintained nursery, Canterbury Nursery School. The Trust has an excellent reputation within Bradford and beyond, and an outstanding record of accomplishment of supporting staff in developing their careers. An exciting element of the Trust is our two Teaching Schools, as well as a SCITT, responsible for teacher training. The Academy itself is an all through learning environment for pupils aged 3 to 16 and our building provides a wonderful environment for lifelong learning, in South Bradford.

The successful candidate will:

- Working with primary teachers to plan art projects to inspire our children and develop their knowledge, skills and understanding of art
- Pupils will be supported to discover and be inspired by a wide range of artists, art techniques and knowledge
- They will learn to develop creative processes through the development of sketch books as well as showcase their work.
- As part of the collaborative process, the Arts Specialist Project Teacher will provide primary teachers with the support develop their art teaching.
- In addition to the specialist work in primary, the Arts Specialist Project Teacher will provide small group support and tuition for secondary pupils in Year 11 in photography and art.

We can offer:

- A hard-working Leadership team dedicated to the success of our students
- Opportunities for innovative ways of working and to further develop good practice
- High quality Continuous Professional Development opportunities
- Free access to an Employee Assistance Programme
- A permanent contract, following a successful 6-month probationary period
