

March 2024

Dear Parent/Carer

As part of your child's English literature GCSE, they study Macbeth as a set text. To help support students in their understanding of this text, and to help families to support revision, we are holding a 'Bringing the Theatre to Appleton' event during the Easter break, which is open to students and their parents.

The event will take place in the dining hall and auditorium on Monday 25 March 2024, from 1.00pm until 3.00pm. We will have learning activities, snacks and drinks and a performance followed by a Q & A session with Katch 22 productions.

This promises to be a fun afternoon out for everyone to enjoy and tickets are free! All we ask is that you confirm your attendance and how many seats you will require by completing the form in the link below:

If you have any questions, please contact me by email in the first instance: sam.barnes@appletonacademy.co.uk.

Yours faithfully
